.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue an order, direction or writ mandamus declaring the respondent no.1 proceedings No.418/STEP/94-A dated 19-05-1994 in terminating the services of the petitioner with immediate effect as illegal, aribtray, unjust and violative of Article 14 and 16 of constitution of India; besides being violative of principles of natural justice while issuing consequential direction to the respondents that the petitioner is entitled for continuance with all consequential and attendant benefits and pass such further of other orders as the Hon'ble Court deems fit and proper in the circumstances of the case.

For the Petitioner: MR.M.V.K.VISWANADHAM ,Advocate

For the Respondent No.1: GP FOR EMPLOYMENT & TRAINING

For the Respondent No.2: Mr. Ramanuja Chari,Advocate.

The Court made the Following :

ORDER:

1. This Writ Petition is filed by the petitioner challenging the order passed by the first respondent dated 19-05-1994 terminating her services.

2. The petitioner was appointed as an Instructor in Radio and TV Servicing, Training Centre of Society for Training & Employment Promotion (STEP) of Adilabad on 21-12-1989. However, her services were terminated on 19.05.1994 without assigning any reason by the first respondent.

3. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the order of termination is illegal and contrary to law. The petitioner has completed nearly five years of service and therefore, the order is simplicitor, illegal and liable to be set aside.

4. The learned Counsel for the respondent submits that the petitioner was appointed as an Instructor in Radio and TV servicing. However, her services were terminated on the ground of stoppage of the training scheme for Radio and TV servicing. Therefore, the order cannot be said to be illegal and contrary to law.

5. Heard the learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner and also the learned Government Pleader for Employment and Training.

6. When the scheme itself is stopped, question of considering the case of petitioner for appointment does not arise.

7. Under those circumstances, I consider it desirable to direct the respondents to consider the case of the petitioner if any such training programmes are commenced in future, subject to her eligibility and fitness.

8. Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of directing the respondents to consider the case of the petitioner, in the event of conducting Radio and TV servicing Training programmes in future. No costs.
